Wed., March 30, 6:30 p.m. - Oyster Lodge, Hoover No. 770

Greetings Brethren! Another month has come upon us and we will be seeing the welcome signs of spring. Tulips and daffodils will be popping up soon, birds will be returning and the temperatures will rise.

This month is another busy and enjoyable month for Canton Lodge. The Stated Meeting on March 2nd will be highlighted by a program by Bro. Jesse Pertee on the Ohio Masonic Home. Fill the seats for this program that details the works of the O.M.H. in caring for our older brethren as we are charged to do.

The Stated Meeting theme on March 16th will be "White Apron Night." Bring your lambskin you were presented at your raising and wear it proudly. Also, that same evening, we will be blessed with Wor. Bro. Kevin Tanner, our district D.E.O., as he presents his program to the lodge.

March is the final month for the food drive for the "Refuge of Hope." Please get your donations in before the 18th which is the delivery day. We are accepting canned goods and monetary donations. Remember, monetary donations are tax deductible so checks should be made out to Refuge of Hope. Any cash donations will be deposited and a check from the lodge will be written. I wish to thank everyone who is participating in this program that raises awareness in the community and affords us the opportunity to practice charity and relief for the distressed.

St. Patrick's Day is one of my favorite holidays and I ask that you celebrate responsibly and enjoy the traditional Irish fare food with thanks. Holy week begins March 20th starting

Fri., March 25 - Good Friday, No Lodge Meeting

Greetings Brethren! We are well into the inspection season with ours not being that far away. One thing I must say I have enjoyed a lot is the visits to the other lodges in the district. There are still plenty of them left so please attend as many as you can. They are the means by which we can observe the true strength of Masons in Ohio and meet Brothers we wouldn't have otherwise.

Back in February our Senior Steward Dr. Seelye did a program on John F. Kennedy which was a huge success. I would like to thank all those Brethren who were in attendance and hope they enjoyed the program as much as I did. I felt proud that our younger Freemasons are as interested in our rich history as our senior Brethren.

March is a big month for us as our inspection is on the very first Friday in the Entered Apprentice Degree. The candidate is very excited and it will be an honor to have you in attendance while we initiate him into this great fraternity. The dinner will be at 6:00 p.m. while the inspection starts at 7:00 p.m. It is amazing how quickly time flies; I feel like my installation just happened yesterday.

We will have a bowling night on our first stated meeting on March 11th. We will open lodge, conduct the new and old business, examine one candidate and head out to the bowling lanes after closing the lodge. I encourage you to bring your families to the bowling lanes and help make this a true fun event. Since the dress code is casual, there should be no reason you cannot

Sun., March 13, 2:00 a.m. – Daylight Saving Time Begins
Thurs., March 17, 7:30 p.m. - Stated Meeting

Hello Brothers! I would like to start by thanking everyone for their hard work so far this year. We had a great inspection thank to the effort that everyone.

Now it is time to have some fun. On March 3rd we will have a short Stated Meeting and then take the ladies to La Pizzeria for a nice dinner and fellowship. This was originally supposed to be closer to Valentines Day, but I am sure the ladies will still appreciate it.

We also have several inspections that are coming up for other local lodges. Please attend whenever possible. This is a great opportunity for younger officers to see the work that they will soon be doing and for the veterans to continue to learn some subtleties in the various degrees that can add to the Candidates experience. And don't forget about the opportunity to meet new friends and catch up with old ones that you do not get to see very often.

Monarchs Message

We have nothing to report for January since we had to Cancel the meeting due to the weather. We did have our February Spaghetti Dinner and the turnout was not too bad. I would also like to add that due to requests, we are going to serve “Meatless Spaghetti Sauce” along with our regular “Meat Sauce” at our Spaghetti Dinners starting this month.

If you have not seen or visited the Grotto Hall for awhile, I encourage and invite you come down and see the big changes that have taken place. We are really very proud of our Grotto Hall.

“Sarge” Hicks is finally up and around now after his surgery. It was good to see him and Gail at the Stated Meetings. Caldron Daughter P.M.C.O., Cindy Gay is recuperating from knee replacement at home. We hear she is doing well; it will be good to see her and the other ladies in March.

In Closing, I would like to say, please visit your Blue Lodge, they need your support!

Thank You

Brief History of St. Patrick's Day

St Patrick is known as the patron saint of Ireland. He was not a born Irish but he has become an integral part of the Irish heritage. Patrick was born in the later half of the 4th century AD. Probably around 373 AD. His birth place is said to be in either Scotland or Roman England. His real name was probably Maewyn Succat. Patricius was his Romanicized name, he came to be familiar as Patrick.

Brief History of St. Patrick's Day

Patrick, as a boy, was kidnapped by a band of pirates in south Wales along with many others. They sold him into slavery in Ireland and he was there for six years, mostly imprisoned. This was when changes came over him. He dreamed of having seen God. Legend says, he was then dictated by God to escape. Finally he did escape and went to Britain and then to France. There he joined a monastery and studied under St. Germain, the bishop of Auxerre. He spent twelve years in training and became a Bishop. He dreamed the Irish were calling him back to Ireland to tell them about God. The Confessio, Patrick's spiritual autobiography, tells of a dream after his return to Britain, in which one Victoricus delivered him a letter titled "The Voice of the Irish."

So he set out for Ireland with the Pope's blessings. There he converted the Gaelic Irish, mostly Pagans, to Christianity. He was confident in the Lord and journeyed far and wide, baptizing and confirming with untiring zeal. And, in a diplomatic fashion, he brought gifts to a king here and a lawgiver there, but accepted none from them.

Patrick was quite successful at winning converts through active preaching. He made converts among even the royal families; a fact that upset the Celtic Druids. Patrick was arrested several times but escaped each time. For twenty years he traveled throughout Ireland establishing monasteries across the country. He also set up schools and churches which aided him in his conversion.

Patrick's doctrine is considered orthodox and has been interpreted as anti-Pelagian. Not particularly noted as a man of learning, a few of his writings remain extant. The Lorica ("Breastplate"), a famous hymn attributed to Patrick, may date to a later period. By the end of the 7th century, Patrick had become a legendary figure and the legends have continued to grow. It is said that he used the three-leafed shamrock to explain the Trinity; which refers to the Father, Son, and the Holy Spirit. Legend also has that Saint Patrick put the curse of God on venomous snakes in Ireland and drove the snakes into the sea. After 1500 years, these legends have been inseparably combined with facts and together they have helped us know much about the Saint and the spirit behind the celebration of the day. Patrick died on March 17, AD 461. That day has been commemorated as St. Patrick's Day ever since. The day's spirit is to celebrate the universal baptism of Ireland. Originally, a Catholic holy day, St. Patrick's Day has evolved into more of a secular holiday. Or rather, 'be an Irish Day'. The Irish has borne it as part of their national tradition everywhere they populate. The leprechaun, a Celtic fairy, has become entrenched as a chief symbol for this holiday as is the shamrock. It is fitting this holiday should fall at the time of spring and the icons, like the green color, the tri-leafed shamrock, the leprechaun, the pot of gold and Blarney's stone, all came to be associated with the celebration of this Day.
